BURBANK, Calif., September 12, 2019 – The Glendale City Council appointed Councilmember Vrej Agajanian to the Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Authority Commission on August 27, 2019. Councilmember Agajanian, who was officially sworn in on September 11, joins Councilmembers Paula Devine and Vartan Gharpetian as one of the Authority’s three Glendale representatives, a position previously held by Zareh Sinanyan, who stepped down on June 7, 2019.

Councilmember Agajanian was elected to Glendale City Council in April 2017 and holds a California Certified Professional Engineer, P.E. degree. As a California certified engineer for the past 38 years, he’s also a current member and past president of the Armenian Engineers and Scientists of America.

Councilmember Agajanian is a Glendale business owner of two television stations broadcasting international news and arts programming. As the commentator of his nightly program for the past 20 years, he has concentrated on U.S. social and political issues.

“It is an honor to represent the City of Glendale and to serve as a Commissioner on the Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Authority,” said Councilmember Agajanian. “The Hollywood Burbank Airport is a vital part of our community and I am grateful for the opportunity to use my experiences to add to the safe, friendly and convenient environment at this facility.”

Councilmember Agajanian has resided in Glendale for 40 years. He and his wife Dina Agajanian have been married for 25 years and have two grown children.
