The BGPAA is a joint powers agency formed by the three cities to own and operate Hollywood Burbank Airport. The Authority is governed by a nine-member Commission, with each of the three cities appointing three commissioners. Each commissioner serves a four-year term.

Commissioner Lyon was born in Kentucky and raised in North Carolina. He worked as a documentary film producer in New York before moving to Southern California in 1998. Today, he's a partner with Pasadena law firm Hahn & Hahn, where he practices business litigation. He has held a variety of positions in public service, including acting as Chair of the Pasadena Planning Commission. Lyon was elected to serve Pasadena District 7 in June 2022.

The other BGPAA commissioners are: President Ara Najarian (Glendale); Vice President Jess Talamantes (Burbank); Secretary-Treasurer Tyron Hampton (Pasadena); Auditor Andy Wilson (Pasadena); Emily Gabel-Luddy (Burbank); Robert "Bud" Ovrom (Burbank); Elen Asatryan (Glendale) and Frank Quintero (Glendale).

The most significant airport project Lyon and the Commission are currently overseeing is the replacement passenger terminal, known as ElevateBUR.

*Hollywood Burbank Airport (BUR) is owned and operated by the Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Authority, a joint powers agency created in 1977 between the Cities of Burbank, Glendale and Pasadena.
